A Home Away from Home

9 JAN. 70

Dear Mom & Dad,

I will be leaving Vietnam this evening. I should arrive in OKINAWA about 10 P.M. And remain there a few days. I haven't any idea how long I'll be in OKINAWA before I fly home. They fly us to three different places, El Toro, Treasure Island and San Francisco, and to San Bernardino, Calif. Norton A.F.B.

I figure it'll be a week yet before I reach the states. I'll call you from California when I arrive and let you in on all the news from there.

I'm fine. Getting a little homesick however. I want to take time to thank you both for the endless hours of prayers and thoughtfulness that you have given me. Without having loving parents who care, I might never had made it through this war.

I didn't make Corporal, however I'm only doing AN 18 month hitch in the USMC. Tell Butch I received 4.8, 4.9 ~~PRO~~ AND CON marks on my SRB. He'll understand what they are.

I don't think I'll be discharged until around Feb. 1st so you can expect me home sometime after that.

I really don't have anything to write about only the fact that I'm extremely happy I'm finally leaving Vietnam.

See you soon.

Lucas Sam,
Larry
